Villa Vaha, Sögüt, sleeps 6 (3 bedrooms)

Villa Vaha (Oasis in Turkish) is set in 2000 sqm of mature gardens, perched above Sögüt with stunning views over the bay and to the Greek island of Symi.

The German/English owners have furnished this villa very tastefully using designer brands of the highest quality.

The villa is suitable for couples or families comprising of two double bedrooms, one twin, all with en-suite bathrooms. The large lounge is comfortable with fabulous sea views. The kitchen is well equipped with all the white goods.

In the garden there is a large 11m x 5m pool (1-1.8m deep) beside the house with space to crash out with sun loungers and wooden 'Sala' with mats to spread out on. There is a shaded area in front of the house and a wonderful sun terrace above the house with chairs and a large parasol.

The villa has air conditioning in all three bedrooms and lounge.

The housekeeper Cakir has been looking after the property since the house was built. Guests love her because she is friendly, helpful and she does her best to make your stay as pleasant and comfortable as possible.

Due to its hillside location car hire is essential to get around. We recommend we organise your transfers as the best way to find the villa, then arrange car hire.

The owners speak excellent English and German. For more details please browse www.LuxuryVillasDirectory.com
